

Welcome to Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh

Exploring and explaining the world of plants for a better future

Royal
Botanic Garden
Edinburgh

The Garden welcomes visitors to explore its unique plant collections which are grown in support of its internationally renowned, worldwide science, conservation and education work.

KEY

FACILITIES

- A Botanics Shop
- B Caledonian Hall
- C East Gate Entrance
- D Fletcher Building (formerly Exhibition Hall)
- E Gateway Restaurant
- F Inverleith House Gallery
- G John Hope Gateway
- H Lecture Theatre and Conference Suite
- I Science Buildings (including Herbarium and Library)
- J Terrace Café
- K West Gate Entrance
- Toilets
- Ranger Information Points
- Recycling Bins

FEATURES

- 1 Alpine House and Courtyard
- 2 Arboretum
- 3 Azalea Lawn
- 4 Chilean Terrace Garden
- 5 Chinese Hillside
- 6 Chinese Pavilion (tíng)
- 7 City Viewpoint
- 8 Climate Station
- 9 Copse
- 10 Cryptogamic Garden
- 11 Demonstration Garden
- 12 Fossil Garden
- 13 Glasshouses
- 14 Herbaceous Border and Beech Hedge
- 15 Native Woodland
- 16 Palm House and Glasshouse entrance
- 17 Peat Garden
- 18 Pond
- 19 Queen Mother's Memorial Garden
- 20 Rock Garden and Stream
- 21 Scottish Heath Garden
- 22 Woodland Garden

0 100m 200m
Scale (approximate only)

SCULPTURES

- S1 Robert Adam – Linnaeus Monument
- S2 Barbara Hepworth – Ascending Form (Gloria)
- S3 Barbara Hepworth – Rockform (Porthcurne)
- S4 Andy Goldsworthy – Slate Cone
- S5 Andy Goldsworthy – Slate Hole Wall
- S6 Ian Hamilton Finlay – Sundial
- S7 Bute Memorial Bench

Maps & Guide Books available from John Hope Gateway and East Gate Reception

Wheelchairs available

Garden
highlights
include:

16 Victorian Palm House and entrance to the Glasshouses

19 Queen Mother's Memorial Garden – a living tribute to a much-loved Monarch

G John Hope Gateway – new visitor facilities and a showcase for biodiversity and the global work of the RBGE

20 The Rock Garden – home to over 4,000 mountain plants from across the globe

7 City Viewpoint – a panoramic view across the New Town to the heart of the city

Please respect the Garden and the enjoyment of others

Only accompanied guide dogs permitted

Please use the recycling bins for all rubbish

No sports or jogging; No ball, throwing or kicking games; No cycles or scooters permitted