

Walkabout...

1 Ann Griffiths Walk

An enchanting 7 mile course down the Vyrnwy Valley, closely following the bank of the River Vyrnwy for most of its length.

2 Glyndŵr's Way

The 135 mile National Trail meanders through open moorland, rolling farmland, woodland and forests and finishes beside the Montgomery Canal in Welshpool.

3 Severn Way

The Severn is Britain's longest river and one of the most beautiful. The total length of the Severn Way is 210 miles from source to sea.

4 Kerry Ridgeway

A gentle undulating 15 mile route following a ridgetop overlooking Wales on the one side and England on the other.

5 Offa's Dyke Path

'A walk through history' - A National Trail path that follows the border between England and Wales, which is Britain's longest archaeological monument.

6 Wye Valley Walk

The beautiful Wye Valley Walk is 136 miles long, following the river valley from Chepstow to the slopes of Plynlimon. Pick up a Wye Valley Walk Passport, get it stamped along the way, then keep it as a souvenir.

7 The Epynt Way

A 56 mile walking, cycling and riding route developed by on Ministry of Defence land. The paths linking off the route also make great circular trails for shorter excursions.

8 Usk Valley Walk

The Usk Valley Walk - Follow the canal towpath and River Usk south through beautiful countryside to the Roman remains at Caerleon.

9 The Beacons Way

The route covers the length of the National Park and is designed for experienced walkers with much of the walking done through open country.

EXPLORE MORE ONLINE:
Discover full details and more exciting walking trails at midwalesmyway.com